“INCUBATOR Art Lab: Radical interdisciplinarity in the arts and sciences”

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Jennifer Willet

Dr. Jennifer Willet is a Canada Research Chair in Art, Science, and Ecology and a Professor in the School of Creative Arts at the University of Windsor, Canada. She is the Director of INCUBATOR Lab, an art/science research laboratory and studio in downtown Windsor. She is also an internationally successful artist and curator in the emerging field of bioart. Her work resides at the intersection of art and science, and explores notions of representation, the body, ecologies, and interspecies interrelations in the biotechnological field.
